

This is the first of what we hope will be a monthly broadsheet. Events in the immediate future of the Honey Suckle Community Centre will be covered in this issue.

Saddle Work Nov. 1st, 6pm Anglican Hall.

This is an informal work seminar learning how to make and repair different parts of horse gear.

NOTE.

If you are interested in leather work we are arranging with the Council of Adult Education to conduct a weekend workshop in the near future.

An Exhibition of Handwork Nov. 7th 9am to 5pm Anglican Hall.

This is a display by many people of the district. Unlike many hand craft displays this is devoted to all qualities of work [words unclear] to the makers [ inspection of the quality.

A cross section is [word unclear] below:

A working display of jewellery and associated work by [name unclear] Block, Susan Davis, Vera [name unclear] and others.

Boomerang throwing by Mr John Atkinson and a display of aboriginal artefacts.

BUILDING

A [word unclear] of mud brick [word unclear] lead light window [3 words unclear].

STEAM ENGINES

A display of steam engines and their components.

MUSIC

Two or three sessions of flamenco guitar playing by local guitarist Phillips Bates. There are many varied and interesting displays so bring your friends along and join us in a lazy day. Who knows a visit may add a new dimension to your life.

Saturday December the 2nd

Interested in a Violet Town market!!

Your help is needed in this venture in something new in our town.

If you make or grow or have something to sell contact us soon. It will be an exciting morning for everyone (young and old).

YOU CAN BENEFIT, THE BUSINESS SECTOR WILL BENEFIT. Ring Kerri Wilson on 21V.

FOOTNOTE

This issue is confined to Community Centre happenings but our wish is for all organisations and individuals wanting to communicate, to join us in a joint venture for monthly issues.

WILL YOU BE IN IT.
