

Sustainable Landscapes
Farm Water Use Expo

Theme: Innovation and New Technology

27th February 2009
10am to 3pm

Free Entry -- Wodonga Exhibition Centre

(Racecourse/Showground Precinct)

Hamilton Smith Drive, Wodonga

Trade displays by government agencies and agricultural and commercial Industries will provide information, new technology and innovation products and services to assist landholders to improve water savings on farm.

Display addition - Bushfire Recovery Information

Free Landholder Seminars will be held and include:

- ❖ 10.30am - Department of Primary Industries
Sub soil irrigation trial results, reticulated water systems and assessing irrigation performance
- ❖ 1.00pm - Dr Ian Prosser - Science Director Water for a Healthy Country Flagship Program, CSIRO. Murray-Darling Basin Sustainable Yields Project Report, highlighting future scenarios in the North East and Goulburn Broken Catchment areas.
- ❖ 1.45pm - Cooperative Research Centre Irrigation Futures trial results on methods to reduce farm dam evaporation.

Food & Beverages on sale – Lions Club Wodonga

For further information please contact
Wendy Paglia 0357311206 e-mail: wendy.paglia@dpi.vic.gov.au
Dennis Watson 0260304567 mobile: 0429304567

Wodonga Map: Exhibition Centre – Farm Water Use Expo – 27th February 2009 – 10am to 3pm

Enter through Brockley St to Hamilton Smith
Drive. Car parking in Showground.

For further information please contact
Wendy Paglia 0357311206 e-mail: wendy.paglia@dpi.vic.gov.au
Dennis Watson 0260304567 mobile: 0429304567

