

Become an Emergency Services volunteer

How can you help?

People affected by emergencies often need support – someone who will listen and give practical help, to be reconnected with family and friends or to find somewhere to stay and eat.

Red Cross needs you to train as a volunteer to help your community in times of emergency.

Emergency Services

The training will prepare you to work as a Red Cross Emergency Services volunteer. It will help you to know what to expect in an emergency and teaches you the skills essential for supporting people in need.

Information sessions

To find out more, information sessions are being held in or around your municipality. By attending an information session you will be provided with all the necessary information on becoming a Red Cross Emergency Services volunteer.
